STAY AND PLAY GROUPS AT SBC

Here at Stopsley Baptist Church we aim to offer a safe environment for parents and carers to play with their children and make new friends. These groups are led by church and community volunteers who help run the sessions. Both Creative Capers and Hullabaloo sessions mark special occasions and Christian celebrations throughout the year. You are welcome to turn up to try out a session, please fill in the form attached.

CREATIVE CAPERS Monday 10.00-11.30am

This is a fun session of art, craft and play activities for you and your child (suggested over 18months). Each week we will have a theme that activities are based around. £3.00 per session including crafts, activities and refreshments. There is no waiting list for this session so you can just turn up.

HULLABALOO Tues, Weds and Thurs 10.00-11.30am & Thurs 1:15-2:45pm

All of these sessions run identically and allow children and carers to explore the activities and facilities provided and also has a ride on toys room. £3.00 per session including activities and refreshments.

Please remember that you are responsible for the children you bring at all times. We do ask you abide by our staying safe rules overleaf. If you are unable to attend for more than half a term, please let us know or we will assume you no longer require your place and allocate it to someone on the waiting list.

We look forward to meeting you!
Any questions then do get in touch with me.
