

live light

...you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart. I will be found by you

Do you ever feel like you don't have a moment to draw breath; rushing from one activity to the next, managing most things but intending very little?

It is good to pause from time to time. It is good to do what we can to ensure that we live life out of our convictions.

These questions are designed to help you to take a pause for thought. You will need to slow down; you will need to find space; you will need to find time, but it is our hope that in so doing you will find some things much more valuable as well. You will find yourself and your God.

You don't need to answer these questions all at once. In fact it would be best not to rush.

Make a cup of coffee, sit in the sun and pray. Don't say a lot of words; just invite God's Spirit to be in your thinking. Be more conscious of his presence.

Read the questions.

And reflect.

Slowly...

Write down the truth, not the right answers. Write from the heart. Afterwards you might like to find someone to talk something through, not everything BUT something. Something important. We believe it could make all the difference
